NO FUNDS ARE AVAILABLE. A Reply to the Citizens of Ecking

ton. W. J. Fowler, chairman of the commit tee on parks and trees of the North Canitol and Eckington Citizens' Association has addressed the District Commissioners in behalf of the association for the planting of trees of rapid growth on Q Street, east of North Capitol Street, and on Quincy Street, between North Capitol Street and Eckington Place.

Another need of that section of the city which is pointed out by the association is the improvement of the circle at the intersection of North Capitol Street and WANTED-Two good, experienced girls for candy store. 918 7th st. rw.

Florida Avenue,

The matter of tree planting was referred to Superintendent of Parkings
Lanham, who recommended that the request be compiled with as soon as possible. He informed the Communitation in the order which had been made to fill out vacant places in the city proper is carried out before it is done in the suburbs, it will not be possible to reach the streets named during the present. the streets named during the present fiscal year. Larger appropriations are absolutely necessary," he says, "to keep the work of tree planting up with street wanted by the work of tree planting up with street wanted by the work of tree planting up with street wanted by the work of tree planting up with street wanted by the work of tree planting up with street wanted by the work of tree planting up with street wanted by the work of the the work of tree planting up with street improvements and to properly care for the trees now on the streets, of which there are about 78 090." Assistant Engineer Richards states that the circles can only be improved when larger appropriations have been made.

A NON-SUIT GRANTED.

The Case of Richardson Against

A non-suit was taken yesterday by the plaintiff in the case of James D. Richardson, administrator of the es ate of the late M. S. Temple, against Albert F. Fox, executor of the estate of the late Caroline M. Pitch yn, by which it was sought to recover $15,000 for services rendered in con-nection with the collection of certain indian claims.

The cause has been on hearing before Justice Cole in Circuit Court No. 1 for
